

3.4 Homework Policy

Policy Statement

To support families and children, the service will endeavor to provide adequate time, quiet space to enable children to do their homework as necessary, with the express understanding that time in school age care may be the optimal opportunity for homework completion.

Procedures

Children doing homework, as requested by parent/caregiver will be away from the other children if possible.

Educators will assist children with projects and homework to the extent possible, taking into consideration supervision and duty of care issues in relation to the other children in care.

Educators will not be responsible for monitoring and signing off on homework.
